New Creative Minnesota Study
Of Red Wing Reveals
Large Impact of the Arts on Local Economy

SAINT PAUL, MN: Creative Minnesota, Minnesota Citizens for the Arts and the City of Red Wing released a new study indicating that the arts have a large impact on the local economy.

The city of Red Wing study is one of seven local studies that Creative Minnesota recently released. Creative Minnesota produces research about Minnesota’s arts and creative sector. It includes statewide, regional and local looks at nonprofit arts and culture organizations, their audiences, artists and creative workers. The local studies show substantial economic impact from the nonprofit arts and culture sector in every corner of the state. All Creative Minnesota research is available for free at CreativeMN.org.

Red Wing and Goodhue County:

The study found that the combined economic impact of nonprofit arts organizations and their audiences in the city of Red Wing is nearly $4.9 Million annually. This includes over $3.8 Million spent by nonprofit arts organizations and over $1.1 spent by over 94,000 attendees.

In the county, revenues from for-profit creative industries is over $167 Million and direct spending of artists in their communities on things such as art supplies and studio rental is over $2.3 Million.

NONPROFIT ARTS AND CULTURE ORGANIZATIONS and ATTENDEES:

The 22 nonprofit arts and culture organizations in Red Wing participated in the study.

- They served 94,407 attendees at arts and cultural events in 2018, including 15,132 youth under 18. Their spending on staff, rents, and supplies was $3,837,535.
• Audience spending at restaurants, bars and shops, at an average of $12.05 per person, was $1,137,604.

• Combined, nonprofit arts and cultural organization and audience spending generated an economic impact of $4,975,139 and had the potential to generate 147 full-time jobs in support of this activity while contributing $502,205 in local and state government revenues.

- 90% of Americans believe that cultural facilities (theaters, museums, sculpture parks, neighborhood arts centers) improve quality of life.

ABOUT CREATIVE MINNESOTA

Creative Minnesota was developed by a collaborative of arts and culture supporting organizations in partnership with Minnesota Citizens for the Arts (MCA). The report includes both new, original research and analysis of data created by others. It is a long-term endeavor to provide hard data about the arts sector for education, policy making, and advocacy. We envision that arts advocates, legislators, local government officials, schools and parents, as well as arts and culture organizations, will use this report to find new ways to improve their lives and communities with arts and culture. Creative Minnesota research is available for free at CreativeMN.org.

MAJOR SPONSORING ORGANIZATIONS:

- Minnesota Citizens for the Arts (MCA) is a statewide arts advocacy organization whose mission is to ensure opportunity for all people to have access to and involvement in the arts. MCA organizes the arts community and lobbies the Minnesota State Legislature and Congress on issues pertaining to the nonprofit arts and conducts original research. MCA works with over 40,000 arts advocates in Minnesota. 651-251-0868 www.artsMN.org @MNCitizen
