The subcommittee met on Tuesday, February 16, 2010. In attendance were Scott Adkisson, Denny Tebbe and John Becker.

The meeting attendees recommend that the Blue Ribbon Panel accept the generous offer from the City of Red Wing to host all information on the City Web Site. The panel also recommends and looks forward to having Kent Laugen host the Open Forum Citizens Blog.

The panel would like to suggest the web page contain the following items but not limited to:

- Meeting schedule
- Meeting minutes (to also include taped meetings)
- PDF documents of all hand outs received from guest speakers or a link to the guest speakers documents if documents are available on line.
- Link to Open Forum Citizens Blog

Panel recommended contact and flow:

- Single contact from the panel for the city
- Single contact from the city for the panel
- Information to be published must flow through panel contact
(All data to be published on the website must flow through the contacts)

Panel recommends we verify:

- City to provide web presence at no charge
