Veteran Art Project from RWAA

Dan Guida, Director of the Red Wing Arts Association (RWAA) received approval from the City Council on Tuesday, November 12, 2013 to place a Veterans Sculpture in Levee
Park, one component of a larger Veterans Art Project. Their goal is to increase awareness in our community of the veteran experience. The other components of the project include a Depot Gallery show with artwork created by veterans. A presentation by retired General John Borling, author of "Taps on the Walls", poetry written while a prisoner in the Hanoi Hilton in North Vietnam will be held on May 20, 2014 at the Sheldon Theater, followed by a Veterans Art Retreat with 40 veterans participating in a weeklong arts experience May 19-26, 2014.

The Red Wing Comprehensive Plan encourages the development of public art projects and partnerships and the sculpture project meets that objective. The sculpture will fit the location in Levee Park without obstructing views of the river.
With the approval from the City Council, the RWAA can now pursue grants and contributions for the project which they hope to install in the spring of 2014.

Available at www.red-wing.org

- * Snow & Ice Control Policy
- * Plow route map
- * Off street parking map

During snowfalls (or in anticipation) of six inches or more in one snow event, the City will provide notice that a snow emergency is being declared. When a snow emergency is declared, notification will be provided to the local radio and newspaper as well as Twin Cities and Rochester radio and television stations by 6:00 pm on the day preceding the emergency. Please remember that snow emergencies are typically two day events, with the first day affecting all snow emergency routes and the second day all non-snow emergency routes.

Each snow emergency will take effect at 12:01 a.m. All vehicles parked on city streets designated as Snow Emergency Routes must be moved and must remain off these streets until noon. Vehicles remaining parked on these streets during the declared period will be towed at the vehicle owners' expense. This includes vehicles re-parked on plowed streets during the declared period. Parking is allowed during this period on all other streets that are not designated as Snow Emergency Route streets unless otherwise indicated.

The Snow Emergency for all other city streets designated as Non Snow Emergency Route streets will begin at 12:01 a.m. the following day. All vehicles parked on these streets must be moved and must remain off these streets until noon. Vehicles remaining parked on these streets during the declared period will be towed at the vehicle owners' expense. This includes vehicles re-parked on plowed streets during the declared period. Parking is allowed during this period on all streets that are designated as Snow Emergency Route streets unless otherwise indicated.

Residents are also encouraged to check with their neighbors for available off-street parking. Off-street parking is also available at the following locations:
