

Red Wing Public Library Monthly Newsletter

December 2013

<http://redwing.lib.mn.us/>

Children's Programming

Holiday Stroll - Red Wing Ambassadors will be reading to children on Friday, November 29th @ 4:00 pm

Tween Gingerbread Books - Tweens will create a literary diorama using gingerbread on Monday, December 9th @ 5:30 pm

Holiday Jammie Jam - Family event on Tuesday, December 10th @ 6:00 pm

T.O.O.L Party - Monday, December 16th @ 5:30 pm - Duct Tape for all your gift

Holiday Bow Making Class

There will be two bow making classes on December 3rd. An afternoon class at 1 pm and an evening class at 6 pm.

The Hobbit: An Unexpected Journey Screening

The Hobbit: The Desolation of Smaug comes to theaters on December 13th. We will have a special screening of the The Hobbit: An Unexpected Journey at the library on December 12th @ 7 pm in the Foot Room. Free Popcorn!

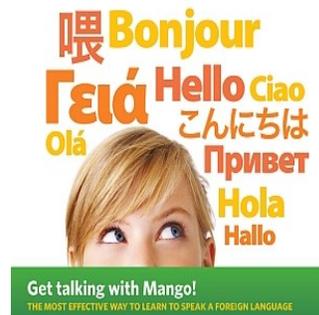

Post- Christmas Tech Clinic

Patrons will be able to bring in new tech items to have library staff assist them in learning to learn to operate their new devices on December 26th & 27th from 2 to 4 pm.

Mango Languages now available online!

We have added Mango Languages to our online resources. Mango Library Edition is a subscription-based product that is available to libraries. It includes a variety of resources to help patrons learn practical conversation skills for languages spoken all around the world. We were able to select 12 languages. We selected English for Spanish Speakers, Arabic (MSA), Chinese (Mandarin), French, German, Italian, Japanese, Norwegian, Portuguese (Brazil), Russian, Spanish (Latin American), and Swedish. They also gave us the entertaining option of learning Pirate for free. Head to the library's website to get started!! <http://redwing.lib.mn.us/>

Food for Fines

Library patrons can exchange canned goods & other foods for library overdue fines to help the United Way's Packing for the Weekend Program. Canned goods and other foods will be collected from December 1 - 20, 2013. $1 per item will go towards current fines. Food for Fines does not include replacement fees for lost or damaged materials, card replacement fees and does not cover future overdue fines.

Friends of the Library 2013 Seasonal Book Sale

The Friends of the Library will be holding a winter book sale on Saturday, December 7th from 9 am till 2 pm.

