RED WING PUBLIC LIBRARY

2014 Summer Reading Program

This year, we have a ton of fun stuff lined up for kids from birth to those going into grade 6 in the fall. Summer Reading 2014 officially begins Monday, June 9th. If you take advantage of early registration, please remember that Summer Reading doesn't officially begin until Monday, June 9th, which means that the first day you can start logging your reading is Monday, June 9th. You must complete 7 days of reading activity to turn in a log. This means that you cannot turn in your first log until Monday, June 16th.

52 Weeks of Winners!

To kick off our contest we will be giving away one autographed book each day for the Week of June 9th. Then for the next year we will draw one name per week for people who visit the library Monday to Saturday each week. Check out our website each week to discover what you could win next!

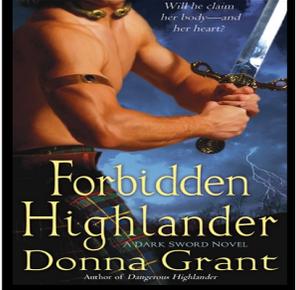

Fantasy Love Letter Writing Competition:

Patrons are invited to submit their fantasy (PG Rated) love letter. It must be at least 5 sentences long. They will be read by a panel of 3 judges. The winning entry will receive a $20 gift card from Amazon. Be romantic, or creative, or funny, but most importantly have fun with it! This contest will run from Monday, June 2nd until Monday, June 30th at 7 PM.

A Year of Romance - June is Fantasy Romance

In June we are celebrating Fantasy Romance. Look out for our display of books featuring angels, demons, witches and immortals who are all looking for a little love! Read any romance book and enter to win autographed books from Kathryn Kennedy, Donna Grant and Nalini Singh.
